The Pope is much depressed by the death on Saturday of Cardinal Peter Respight, the Vicar-General, and it is feared that this occurrence will have on adverse influence on his progress toward recovery from his indisposition. He prayed for a long time to-day while Mgr. Bressan, his private secretary, celebrated a requiem mass for the late Cardinal.

ASK CITY FOR $2,200,000 HIGHWAY IN CATSKILLS.

Forty Miles of Brick Pavement Urged by Aqueduct Commissioner Strauss as an Economy.

The laying of a forty-mile brick road from one State road to another, through Catakille, was discussed in the office of Comptroller Prendergast to-day. Dep-uty Comptroller Douglas Matthewson, Charles Straus, President of the Water Board, and J. Waldo Smith, chief engineer of the Catskill Aqueduct, urged that the road be built.

The road would cost the city $55,000 a mile, or about $2,200,000. Commissioner Sirass declared that the road would mean economy, as it would be a permanent highway. It was decided that the matter should he brought before the Board of Esti-mate, probably at the next meeting, chrough an application for the issue of 12,300,000 corporate stock to defray part of the cost of construction.

ing Ah Chung was held without ball to-day by Recorder Mara in Bayonne. N. J., charged with a murderous assault with an axe on Chief Officer Gail of the Standard Oil steamship Romany. Gail is in the Bayonne Hospital in a serious condition. All he has been able to tell is that, while asleep on the ship, he was struck on the head with the axe.

Chung was carpenter on the Romany. He told the Recorder he was afraid he would be poisoned if he returned to his No. After the assault the Chinaman was discovered hiding in the stokehole but broke away and jumped overboard. He clung to the pier and was hauled
